

---

Job Title: Concrete Pump Truck (CPT) Service Technician

Date Requested: 07-13-2010

Report to: David Wright

Responsibilities:

- The technician using schematics, diagrams, and other technical information will troubleshoot and repair electrical, mechanical, and hydraulic systems.
- The technician will provide service and technical support for CPT both in person and through electronic communication.
- The technician will assist with CPT production and R&D activities:
  - Maintain customer contact through written, verbal and electronic communication means.
  - Provide onsite training in correct operation and maintenance of Sany CPT product line.
  - Provide clear and timely communication and feedback to Sany CPT team.
  - Develop and forward proposals to continue product improvement.
  - Gather and forward customer feedback to CPT team.
  - Promote Sany brand and image.
  - Assist with set up and operation of trade shows, assemble CPT and other product production as required with flexibility.
  - Other duties as assigned by manager.

Requirements:

- The technician must have a strong understanding of electrical, mechanical, and hydraulic systems.
- The technician will have troubleshooting and repair skills.
- The technician will have knowledge of concrete pumps and concrete pumping operation.
- This position will be based at Sany's Peachtree City, GA location.
- The position requires extensive travel
- Clear and concise written and verbal communication skills required.
- Technician must coordinate travel to coincide with customer expectations.
- Technician must be able to physically and mentally perform the duties as assigned.